

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE INTERNSHIP

The Pangea Network is looking for passionate college students interested in community service, mentorship, human rights, and/or women empowerment to lead its annual Young Women's Leadership Challenge (YWLC) program.

From mid-May through August, interns will dedicate up to 160 hours to work with a highly collaborative team in-person.

HOUSTON, TX

 2 Conferences: June 22-27, July 13-18

 Rice University

 $500 Stipend

AUSTIN, TX

 1 Conference: July 6-11

 St. Edward's University

 $250 Stipend

INTERN TASKS:

- Attend trainings for YWLC summer conference on how to administer and facilitate our curriculum.
- Program Management, from recruitment to fundraising to implementation
- Event Planning for all the details that go into creating an exceptional experience for high school students
- Administrative Tasks, including organizing conference supplies and being proactive with tasks pre, during, and post conference sessions

ABOUT YWLC:

A year-long leadership program equipping high school girls with skills, tools, and confidence to thrive.

Topics you'll lead include: leadership, career exploration, global awareness, financial literacy, and social-emotional learning

Expert guest speakers throughout the year from:

ExxonMobil & more!

INTERESTED? PLEASE APPLY ONLINE: EMPOWERED2LEAD.ORG